To protect the Froedtert & the Medical College brand, guidance is provided for common requests from vendors and partner organizations.

Using Our Name and Logo
Our vendors and partner organizations may have the need to use our name, images, logo or copyrighted materials in their own materials – including but not limited to items like brochures, sell sheets, T-shirts, newsletters and websites. This can be accomplished with permission from the Froedtert & the Medical College health network. Froedtert & the Medical College health network will determine whether permission is granted on a case-by-case basis, in its sole judgment. Permission will not be granted to organizations that:

- Produce or support hate, discrimination, pornography, libel or other defamatory content
- Support or advocate for any political party, organization or person running for office
- Produce or support content that violates any trademark, copyright or patent law
- Produce or support content that any reasonable person would consider objectionable and not consistent with the mission, vision or values of the Froedtert & the Medical College brand

Requests for using our name, images, logo or copyrighted material may be made via the online form found at froedtert.com/brand-usage. Usage of the Froedtert & the Medical College brand, name and/or logo must be clear in the request.

Vendor Requests for News Releases, Testimonials and Case Studies
Vendors frequently issue news releases announcing a contractual relationship with us; sometimes such permission is included in the contract language. All news releases must be reviewed by Froedtert & the Medical College health network media relations staff. Media relations will discuss the request with the program director to determine the validity of the vendor relationship before approving the release. Quotes attributed to Froedtert representatives should be factual and avoid endorsing the product or vendor. Requests for testimonials and case studies are handled similarly.

Use of Our Brand and Name by Our Staff
Any comments or statements made by a Froedtert Health staff member regarding any of our partners, including vendors, collaborators, nonprofit and community group partners, and others are the staff member’s individual opinion and do not reflect the opinion of Froedtert & the Medical College of Wisconsin. Individual staff member comments or statements should not be viewed as official Froedtert & the Medical College endorsement.
